

I support New Jersey's do not call provisions and wish to make them even more stringent. Marketing calls are a severe intrusion on private life and I wish to prevent them in any way possible. If I want any product, service or to be interviewed, I will seek it out. I strongly urge that the practice of telemarketing be stopped as soon as possible as an infringement on my right to privacy in my own home.